

Keynote Speaker

Timothy J. Cleary

Timothy J. Cleary is Professor and Chair of the Department of School Psychology at the Graduate School of Applied and Professional Psychology (GSAPP) at Rutgers University (USA)

Dr. Timothy Cleary is an internationally recognized scholar in the field of self-regulated learning (SRL), known for his innovative approaches to assessment and intervention. His pioneering work on SRL microanalysis and multi-method, multi-source assessment strategies has significantly advanced understanding of the dynamic nature of regulatory functioning and its practical application in school and clinical settings. Dr. Cleary's research spans diverse contexts, including academic, athletic, medical, and clinical domains, bridging theory and practice to empower learners, educators, and families. He has authored and edited several influential books on SRL and is frequently invited to deliver keynote addresses and professional development workshops across the United States, South America, and Europe.
